

NHS Warwickshire North: public consultation on urgent care / walk-in centre: 1 Oct - 23 Nov 2015

Published	Headline	Summary	Publication	Page Num	Advertising Value Equivalent	Word count	Audience Reach: circulation
08/10/2015	Health chiefs admit one service will have to close	Andrea Green, chief officer of NHS Warwickshire North CCG, commented on the news that it is not possible to provide two similar urgent care services in Nuneaton, stating: "Although we currently have a walk-in service at Camp Hill and a GP led urgent care service available on the George Eliot hospital site, it is not sustainable in the long term to run two centres for walk-in/urgent care."	Nuneaton News	5	824.32	368	29953
13/10/2015	Patients consulted over location of care centre	Warwickshire North Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) has launched a consultation explaining it was unsustainable to run two centres for walk-in/urgent care. Andrea Green, chief officer of NHS Warwickshire North CCG, is quoted.	Coventry Telegraph	9	230.85	95	20321
19/10/2015	£1 m savings from closure	Revamping urgent and emergency care in Nuneaton could save money if Camp Hill's walk-in service is closed. That is being looked at by the Warwickshire North Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG). Currently patients can access help and treatment either at the GP-led urgent care site at the George Eliot Hospital or the walk-in service on the Camp Hill estate.	Nuneaton News	1	1352.96	604	29953
26/10/2015	Urgent care review slammed as a 'sham'	A consultation into urgent care changes which could see a walk-in service on Nuneaton's Camp Hill estate close has been slammed for being unbalanced. Members of the Patient Participation Group (PPG) at Camp Hill Surgery say, having read the Warwickshire North Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) document which aims to help revamp urgent and emergency care in Nuneaton, they see it as a sham. The group says the consultation is geared towards one option - moving the service to George Eliot Hospital.	Nuneaton News	3	770.56	344	29953
09/11/2015	Urgent care review drop in sessions to take place	Residents in Nuneaton, Bedworth and North Warwickshire are urged to attend one of two drop-in-sessions organised by health bosses contemplating the future of urgent care. Andrea Green the chief officer NHS Warwickshire North CCG said: "It's vital that we have an urgent care service which can be accessed easily by the greatest number of people, and provides the help they need, when they need it".	Nuneaton News	9	703.36	314	29953
12/11/2015	Opinions invited on walk-in health service during event	A drop-in session will allow North Warwickshire residents to have their say over where a walk-in centre should be based in the region - after plans were revealed to open a new facility at George Eliot Hospital. Andrea Green, chief officer of NHS Warwickshire North CCG, said: "It's vital that we have an urgent care service which can be accessed easily by the greatest number of people, and provides the help they need, when they need it. "We look forward to meeting local people at these events. We want to hear their views on the options so that they can influence the future shape of these important local services."	Tamworth Herald	39	529.92	207	18394
12/11/2015	Opinions invited on walk-in health service during event	A drop-in session will allow North Warwickshire residents to have their say over where a walk-in centre should be based in the region - after plans were revealed to open a new facility at George Eliot Hospital.	Atherstone & Coleshill Herald (web)		392.92	188	23238
19/11/2015	Air your views over walk-in centre plan	A DROP-IN session will allow North Warwickshire residents to have their say over where a walk-in centre should be based in the region – after plans were revealed to open a new facility ↗	Atherstone & Coleshill Herald	3	71.06	34	23238